August 1, 2011

The Judicial Process Commission (JPC) needs individuals who are concerned about the violence in our city and would like to help by becoming a mentor to someone who has been involved in the criminal justice system. This will help establish their successful re-entry into the community. It has been well documented that they have a better probability of success if they have mentors. Just to let someone know that you care, and are available for encouragement and sound, practical advice means a lot when you're fighting to get your life straightened out.

JPC is a non-profit organization that has served our community for over 37 years. It offers mentoring, case management, job search assistance; resume writing, completion of Certificate of Relief of Disabilities applications, assistance with obtaining ID, food and clothing. JPC is a one-of-a-kind grass roots organization with a small staff and a dedicated corps of volunteers to provide this wide array of services. As a result, numerous individuals have become law abiding citizens again.

We hope that you will help us by becoming a volunteer mentor and communicating this need to your peers, friends and acquaintances.

Your assistance is needed to help men and women and their children, break the cycle and become successful citizens. If you are able to serve as a mentor please contact me at your earliest convenience at 325-7727.

We will train you. Our next Mentor Training Event is September 19th and 20th at 84 Scio Street from 5:00 to 9:00 pm. (one block from East Main near to the Eastman Theatre).

Thank you for your consideration of our request, and we look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,
Valerie White-Whittick
